

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS

Misc. No. 03-10

IN RE: SELF-REPRESENTED PARTIES' MISDIRECTED BRIEFS AND OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

ORDER

It has come to the Court's attention that occasionally a self-represented party will misdirect an otherwise timely submitted brief or other required document to the Secretary, rather than to the Court. By order of the Chief Judge, pursuant to the authority of 38 U.S.C. §§ 7263(b) and 7264(a), it is ORDERED that, effective this date, in those instances in which a self-represented party has misdirected to the Secretary a brief, or any other document required to be filed with the Court, the Secretary will promptly provide the Court with notice, and a copy, of the misdirected brief or other misdirected document.

DATED: April 2, 2010

FOR THE COURT:
