

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR VETERANS CLAIMS

Misc. No. 9-05

In Re: STANDING PANEL ON ADMISSION AND DISCIPLINE

Before GREENE, Chief Judge, and KASOLD, HAGEL, MOORMAN,
LANCE, DAVIS, and SCHOELEN, Judges.

ORDER

Rule 1(c) of the Court's Rules of Admission and Practice (Rules) provides for referring cases under those Rules to a standing panel if the Court decides to establish such a panel on a rotating or permanent basis. The Standing Panel on Admission and Discipline (Standing Panel) was created on January 27, 2005, by Miscellaneous Order No. 01-05, to consider disciplinary cases coming before the Court. Upon the retirement of Chief Judge Ivers, a member of the Standing Panel, and pursuant to Rule 1(c), the membership of the panel shall be redesignated.

Upon consideration of the foregoing, it is ORDERED that, effective immediately, the Standing Panel will consist of Chief Judge Greene and Judges Kasold and Hagel.

DATED: September 12, 2005

BY THE COURT:

WILLIAM P. GREENE, JR.
Chief Judge
